MEMORANDUM FOR SEE DISTRIBUTION

SUBJECT: Installation Food Service Policy Memorandum No. 57 – Commander's Best Dining Facility Award Program

1. Purpose: This memorandum provides guidance for participation in and nomination of representatives to the Garrison Commander's Best Dining Facility Awards Program.
2. References:
 - a. AR 30-22, 24 July 2012, Army Food Program.
 - b. DA Pam 30-22, 6 February 2007, Operating Procedures for the Army Food Program.
3. Responsibilities:
 - a. The Fort Gordon Installation Food Service will:
 - (1) Provide policy guidance for development and conduct of the Installation Garrison Commander's Best Dining Facility Awards Program for Excellence in Army Food Service.
 - (2) Establish specific standards for evaluation in all categories of the competition. Criteria used should further the objectives of the Army Food Service Program set forth in AR 30-22 and DA Pam 30-22.
 - (3) Conduct unannounced evaluations using the installation food service general purpose checklist and select the winner based on the highest score. Dining facilities must achieve a minimum score of 90% during the evaluation to be eligible for the award.
 - (4) Select the competitors winning the most quarterly evaluations for the Garrison Commander's Best Dining Facility Awards Program for the Year. In the event of a tie, the installation will evaluate the facilities to determine only one winner for the year.
 - (5) The Installation Food Program Manager will announce winners following evaluations. The winners will be recognized in an appropriate award ceremony.
