MEMORANDUM FOR All Garrison Employees

SUBJECT: Policy Memorandum # 87 - Garrison Employee Recognition

1. General: Customer service is the cornerstone of what the Garrison provides in support of units, organizations, Service Members, and their Families. Customer service at Fort Gordon relies on people who are positive, professional, and polite. While quality customer service is a simple concept, to provide it consistently and to standard is a complex task that requires constant vigilance on the part of leaders and a workplace environment that supports and promotes a level of service that reassures our customers that they are genuinely valued. A vital part of creating this environment is to ensure that the workplace is also positive, professional, and polite. One of the most critical aspects of creating this type of workplace environment is the implementation of a fair, consistent, and thorough employee recognition and appreciation program, particularly for service delivered above and beyond what is expected.

2. Commander's Intent: To pursue every opportunity to recognize Garrison employees for the outstanding work they do for Soldiers, Families, and Civilians on this installation. There are hundreds of dedicated teammates serving the Fort Gordon community everyday that rarely get recognized for what they do. Too often, all they hear about is the negative. I want to be able to not only tell them thank you, but for their own Family to have a sense of pride that their mom, dad, or significant other made a difference. Along these same lines, I want the Garrison as a team to consistently work to know each other better. Employees need to identify themselves as the Garrison, as well as, crucial members of their directorate. I want to build a sense of team in the installation.

3. Execution: Garrison directors will submit an annual employee recognition plan as part of their Civilian Evaluation Support Form, DA Form 7222-1. It will address how each of the various recognitions listed below will be leveraged to recognize employees within respective directorates.

4. Recognitions: The basis of the USAG-Fort Gordon recognition program is aggressive and consistent use of the various means of recognition contained in AR 672-20, "Incentive Awards". Just as important as the type of recognition, so is the format used to present the recognition and honor the recipient. Ceremonies are the standard in an appropriate venue with the right people present to include Family members and/or significant others. Beyond AR 672-20, the following means will also be leveraged to provide the recognition our members deserve:

a. Length of Service Awards: Supervisors will track the years of service of each civilian employee they supervise and ensure that they are recognized in an appropriate ceremony with the presentation of the corresponding certificate and pin.

b. Unit Awards Program: Directors will submit nominations for select awards listed in enclosure #1 that apply to respective functional areas. In the event that the nominee is not selected, an appropriate local award will be presented to recognize the individual as the Fort Gordon selectee.

c. Evaluation: As part of the annual evaluation process, every USAG-Fort Gordon employee will be considered for a performance award to include cash award, time off award, step increase, and/or honorary award.

d. Departure Award: Upon departing from Fort Gordon, employees will be recognized by presentation of the appropriate honorary award.

e. Employee of the Quarter: Every Directorate will nominate an employee for the Employee of the Quarter competition, and present that nominee with appropriate directorate level recognition.

f. IMCOM "Hero of the Week" Recognition Program: Each month a Fort Gordon Garrison employee will be nominated using the format in enclosure #2 for IMCOM "Hero of the Week" recognition according to the schedule in enclosure #3. PAO is the POC within the Garrison for this program and will collect, submit, and schedule presentations during IMCOM Commander Update Briefings held each Wednesday.

4. The Point of Contact for this policy letter is the Deputy to the Garrison Commander, 791-6300.
